

Southborough
FLU CLINIC
Wednesday, October 7, 2009
Saturday, October 17, 2009

Southborough Board of Health is holding its second Flu Clinic open to All Southborough Residents, 19 years and older. It will be held on Saturday, October 17, 2009 at the Woodward School. There is a small $15 fee to residents who don't meet the High Risk criteria of 65 years of age or older.

On Wednesday, October 7, 2009 a clinic for those 65 and older and Town and School Employees will be held at the Senior Center.

Wednesday, October 7, 2009

Southborough Senior Center

from 11 AM to 4PM

Location: 9 Cordaville Rd. (Rte 85)

Seniors are encouraged to utilize the Senior Center clinic in the morning, but are welcome all day long. Seniors may also attend clinic to be held at Woodward school. Please bring your Medicare and/or Senior Health Plan Insurance Care

Town and School Employees may attend this clinic in the afternoon, from 3PM to 4PM, but may also attend the Saturday clinic.

Saturday, October 17, 2009

Woodward School.

From 10 AM to 1PM

Location: 28 Cordaville Rd. (Across from the Senior Center on Rte. 85)

ANY Adult resident (19 yrs & older) may receive a flu vaccination at this clinic.

COSTS

65 and older ----- No Cost

Town & School Employees- No Cost

Other Town Residents (19 & older)

Influenza Vaccine----- $15.00

Pneumococcal ----- No Cost